

Seattle-Tacoma-Bellevue, WA

- In 2007, the Seattle-Tacoma-Bellevue metropolitan area was the fourth largest export market in the United States, with sales totaling $53.9 billion.
- The Seattle metropolitan area accounted for 87 percent of Washington's merchandise exports in 2007, the highest share of any metropolitan area.
- China was the leading export destination for Seattle's exports of goods in 2007. Other leading destinations were Japan and Canada.
- Transportation equipment was among the top Seattle exports for 2007.
- Other top exports were computer and electronic products ($2.5 billion, 5 percent); fishing, hunting and trapping ($1.8 billion, 3 percent); and machinery, except electrical ($1.6 billion, 3 percent).

Data year: 2007. Last updated: February 11, 2009.

Contact: Liz Clark (202-482-5732) & Michael Greene (202-482-2551), Office of Trade and Industry Information